Day Tour to Garni Geghard

Day Tour to Garni Geghard admin admin

Embark on a culturally rich and scenic day trip to Garni Temple and the Geghard Monastery, two of Armenia's most iconic landmarks nestled in the Azat River Gorge.
This tour is perfect for history lovers, nature enthusiasts, and those looking to experience the spiritual and architectural heritage of Armenia in a single day.

Itinerary

1. First Stop: Garni Temple - A 1st-century Hellenistic temple, dedicated to the sun god Mihr. It's the only Greco-Roman colonnaded building still standing in Armenia.

Activities: • Guided tour of the temple and royal bathhouse
• Panoramic views of the Azat River Gorge
• Optional walk to the Symphony of Stones, a natural basalt column formation
2. Traditional Armenian Lunch (Optional) Enjoy a homemade Armenian lunch in a nearby guesthouse or restaurant as Gastro yard Sergey's Place
Here you can also have the experience of lavash baking in a traditional tonir (underground oven).
3. Second Stop:Mashtots Hayrapet Church
4. Now you can go to Geghard Monastery (UNESCO Site) - A 13th-century rock-cut monastery partially carved out of a mountain. Known for its acoustics, spiritual ambiance, and ancient carvings.
Activities:• Guided exploration of the cave chapels and churches
• Learn about Armenia's early Christian heritage
