

Victory Day

📍 Victory Park and Statue of Mother Armenia and all across Armenia  Free

May 9 is known as Victory Day over fascism, or Victory and Peace Day. Armenia celebrates this holiday on a grand scale: a military parade, air shows, concerts and political speeches last most of the day. Veterans gather to tell their stories about the war, and the first persons of the Armenian government and the clergy lay flowers at the Mother Armenia monument to honor the memory of the Armenian soldiers who gave their lives for the victory in the Great Patriotic War.
